

FOREWARN® Opt-Out Policy

FOREWARN affords certain individuals the opportunity to request that their personal information be made unavailable to subscribers of FOREWARN. FOREWARN will consider your request if you meet one of the following requirements and you provide the required documentation in support of your request:

- You are a public official or law enforcement officer under threat of death or serious bodily harm; or
 - You must provide a letter from your supervisor on the agency's letterhead substantiating the threat.

*Note: Your position as a public official or law enforcement officer, in and of itself, does not satisfy these requirements – there must be exceptional circumstances, such as a special assignment, that gives rise to the threat.

- You are a private individual subject to a substantial risk of physical harm.
 - You must provide a copy of a police report, a copy of a court protective order, or similar documentation.

All requests, with the required supporting documentation, are to be submitted to the following address:

FOREWARN Opt-Out Request
P.O. Box 812680
Boca Raton, Florida 33481

FOREWARN reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to grant or deny your request. Information provided by you in support of your request will be used by FOREWARN solely in considering your request. This policy applies to information made available through FOREWARN only. Granting your request will not prevent third parties from displaying your personal information.

FOREWARN will respond to your request within 90 days of receipt of all required documentation.
